Play Heats up in Lancaster Parks & Recreation Volleyball

After a brief January thaw, winter has returned with a vengeance as play heats up in the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department's adult volleyball leagues. With the halfway point of the season now past, the divisional races are seeing the cream rising to the top as we approach the Dog Days of February.

Play last week saw a tightening of races in our Men's Wednesday Night League as well as our "B1" ladies

Their week spotlight team include Pam's Jansma's Fireside Inn-Fury our leaders in co-ed and our women's "C" divisional leader Ceil Kicak Smith's Gun Shop, who both hold slim leads in their divisional.

Men's League

Tuesday Night League: Division lead Frank's goes to 17 and four with a three to zero sweep of Good Tymes South-Ziegler. Green Buffalo Pub-Batt took two of three from the Green Buffalo Pub-Wife Dodgers, while the Attack captured a pair from Sal's two to one.

Wednesday Night "A" League: Division leader Team Steinel show no mercy in a three to zero sweep of Elma Towne Grille-Schlesinger. Green Buffalo Pub-Klock has a nice evening in a two to one win over the Free Agents.

Wednesday Night "B" League: Elma Town Grille-Beltz takes two of three from the division leading Chucksters, to tighten up the division. The Bumpin Ugliers takes two of three from second place Green Buffalo Pub-Nuwer who loses an opportunity to gain ground on the Chucksters.
